"I was troubled with catarth for ever two years. I tried various remedies, and was treated by a number of physicians, but received no benefit until I began to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla. A few bottles of this medicine cured me of this troublesome complaint and completely restored my health,"—Je se M. Boggs, Holman's Mills, N. C.

Roggs, Holman's Mills, N. C.

• When Ayer's Sarsaparilla was recommended to me for catarrh, I was instant of to doubt its efficacy. Having tried so many remedies, with little benefit, I had no faith that anything would care me. I became emacated from loss of appetite and impaired digestion. I had nearly lost the sense of smell, and my system was baily deranged. I was about discouraged, when a friend argodime to try Ayet's Sarsaparilia, and referred me to persons whom it had cared a catarrh. After taking half a dozen battles of this medicine, I am convined that the only sure way of treating this that the only sure way of treating this obstitute distingte discuss is through the blood.?

Gentle reader, study this map carefully and you will see much in it that is interesting and more that is profitable. Look at the States, the Mountains, the Rivers and the Cities, and you will see a great Object Lesson. You will see the great River of Consumption, rising in the Spring of Colds, flowing down to the Sea

It has been a process of the course of the c New Years and New Years and Yes you can be taken speedily back. But hark! What is farther up the river, and yet you can be taken speedily back. But hark! What is that moise—that sulen roar? It sounds like falls and the swift current shows too plainly that such is the case. "Can we not land new?" they ask in despair. No. The current is too swift, the falls too near, the power of reasonactoo feeble. Over the falls down to the depths! Surely it must be death for all. But no, here are a few, a very few, who have struggled to the shore, and with despairing efforts have clambered upon its banks. How desolate they are and yet just below is the City of Last Hope. Few ever reach it to return; few who go over the falls survive, while same to him they be affiliate."—Fliegende
